Harbor Area Choirs To Sing At Tomorrow's Music Festival

The fourteen choirs and choruses participating in the Fifth Annual Harbor Area Festival of Music will present a varied program of sacred, secular, folk songs, and spirituals at the San Pedro High School Auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Included among the songsters will be the Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA Mothersingers, with "The Wind in the South" by Scott and Donath's "Yankee Glory"; the Narbonne High School A Cappella Choir with Dawson's "Soon Ah Will Be Done" and "Madame Jeannette" by Murray; the Western Ave. Baptist Church Choir of Harbor City with "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" by Tains-Watts and "The Song in my Soul" by Benson; and the Wayside Chapel Choir of Lomita with "Jacob's Ladder" and Smith's "Arm of the Lord."

CHORUSES JOIN
As a climax to the individual choral numbers, Dr. Russell N. Squire, head of the department of music at Pepperdine College, will lead the combined choruses, choirs, and audience in the final number of the program, "God of Our Fathers," by Warren.

Dr. Squire is also president of the Los Angeles Branch of Music Teachers Association of California and president of the Pepperdine College Chapter of the American Association of University Professors. He has authored many music books, including "Sight Singing" and "Introduction to Music Education." His memberships include the

Florists Seek Show Ideas

City flower lovers are being invited this week to enter an idea contest sponsored by La Galeria Florist Shop.

Mrs. Lillie K. Walsworth, proprietress of the shop, announced the contest after receiving a letter from officials of the International Show held in Inglewood last March which complimented her on the arrangements she did and asked for her suggestions on improving the show.

She in turn this week asked all who are interested to submit their ideas, in 100 words or less, to give their ideas on improving the annual event.

Participants may mail their letters to La Galeria, 1657 Gramercy Ave., or bring them directly to the shop, Mrs. Walsworth said. All entries must be submitted by Friday, May 15.

Prize for the best idea will be a planter, plant, or flowers valued at $10. Two other prizes, a planter, plant, or flowers valued at $5; and a flower or corsage worth $3.50 also will be awarded.

In case of a tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded. Opinion of the judges will be final. Judges for the contest will be Walter F. Swartz, manager of the Southern California Floral Association, and two members of the executive committee of the International Flower Show.

Margie Fedor Is Bride-elect

The third finger, left hand, of Miss Margie Fedor, sophomore at Torrance High School, now sparkles with the diamond ring of Jack Leggett, who is with the U. S. Navy at an air testing station in Chilo Lake, Calif.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fedor, 1522 Anapola Ave. Her fiancé, son of the Jack Leggetts of Wilkeson, Wash., attended Buckner High School in Washington before entering the service.

The young couple is tentatively planning an October wedding.

'Wives' Slate To Interest Newcomers

Of interest to newcomers to the Torrance area are two meetings scheduled at the Torrance YWCA as a part of the YW-Wives program on Fridays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Mrs. Otis S. Blackstone, public relations director, announced yesterday.

Tomorrow's session will highlight a talk by a representative of the local Chamber of Commerce, who will explain the services available to those living in this area.

The following Friday, May 15, meeting will feature a study of interior decoration which will appeal to new home owners as well as to those who have been a part of this community for sometime, Mrs. Blackstone said. Following the business and program, the YW-Wives will participate in sports. Child care will be available. The newly-organized group is open to all interested women of the community.

PARENT CLASS TO MEET
The Narbonne PTA-sponsored parent-education forum will meet tonight, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, at the Narbonne High School Little Theater. Mrs. Irene Worth will lead the discussion.
